Property Description

9 acres of deeded land that overlooks the most dramatic part of the coast in this area of Costa Rica. The property is located just 300 yards off the coastal highway, is accessed through an electric gate and opens up to one of the most powerful estates in the country. The property goes from one creek to another and includes an entire 'belt' of mountain side. Upon the ridge section is a small guest/caretaker house and a very fortress-like main house. The main house includes 2 garages, a large great room, oversized terraces, & inviting swimming pool on the entry level; the second level includes a billiards area with terrace and and large open corridor that access the 4, ensuite bedrooms - all with breathtaking views of the crashing whitewater below. The property is ideally situated for a high-end estate, conversion into a boutique hotel, special event venue or other development.
