Property Description

Looking for a property with incredible coastal views? This is it! This 20 Hectare parcel boasts spectacular views to both the north and south of the pacific coast. Overlooking the Hotel Punta Islita, this finca reaches the highest point in the area. The gradual slope makes it the perfect site for development. The property has recently been cleared with the exception of an interior natural reserve. Enjoy daily visits from the local Howler Monkey troops and several Scarlet Macaws which have recently been reintroduced to the area. From this property you can enjoy the beach club and golf course offered by the Hotel Punta Islita. This is the perfect property for several private estates.
