Property Description

Security. Convenience. Community. Located in the exclusive community Las Olas Dominical, Costa Rica, this spacious homesite offers you quick and easy access, a view out to the Pacific Ocean, the peace of mind that comes from a gated community with a security service, and neighborhood restrictions to ensure your investment will retain its value. The lot is only a two-minute drive up from the main highway and only a few more to local beaches. Once you gain access up a well maintained road and through the monitored gate, you are in a luxury environment where the emphasis is on spaciousness and natural beauty. Water is provided by an internal well system, electricity is all under ground and the neighborhood has a nice history as a primary home or vacation rental location. Positioned between Dominical and Uvita, Las Olas residents can take advantage of numerous gorgeous beaches for surfing, boogie boarding, snorkeling or long walks.
