Property Description

This home under construction will have 1,640 square feet (153 mt²), built by one of the best builders in Costa Rica. The new home is being constructed on a lot of over 5,000 mt² (1.25 acres+/-) and is being finished with custom cabinets, insulated roof and walls (including the interior walls), and a large downstairs room that can be completed to meet your needs; 3rd bedroom, servants quarters, office/bodega, or, just enclose it for storage. Enjoy cool breezes and great sunsets from the large deck on the oceanside, or, just look out the window of any room in the house for magnificent views of Isla Chora and Playa Samara and Carrillo. This home will not last long. The photos were taken October 1, 2012, and construction should be complete in 45 days.
