Property Description

Once a village and now a paradise perfect for a community or retreat center is now available! Aguas Sagradas is a rare gem of a property consisting of two farms side by side totaling 78 acres of pristine wilderness in the Diamante Valley. This is an abundant farm with hundreds of mature fruit trees, and abundant turmeric and cocoa farm, nestled on the Baru River between two waterfalls. One of them considered being the most beautiful waterfall in Costa Rica. This land is blessed with water, abundant springs, four creeks, that gravity flow into the river. This property has large sections of flat usable land, completely organic, off-grid, great views, and had over 20 house sites! This land has infinite potential! It has two houses, two cabins, fertile soil, which allows the dream to live off-grid, homestead, ride horses, farm, and create a community totally possible! Live the dream!
