Property Description

Jaco is Costa Rica's largest beachfront and most exciting beach front community, with more than 10,000 full time residents and retirees and growing all the time. Jaco contains all the municipal and national government services, making life so much easier as you get settled in your new move. There are many options, from modern grocery stores to emergency medical services, and a Jaco cinema. The many positive changes that have come about the past few years is in part due to the Central Pacific Chamber of Commerce. There is something for anybody, from hiking trails at Miro, surfing, jungle, good restaurants, self-made beer tubs, strolling down the main street, night entertainment, or take your dog to the beach. If you want to play golf and fishing, the Los Suenos Marina is nearby. The national park Manuel Antonio just on an hour distance. The many beaches nearby like the Esterillos, playa Bejuco, Playa Hermosa, and Punta Leona.
