Property Description

Located in front of the beautiful Coyote beach, with an impressive view of the beach and almost the entire Costa Rican north Pacific golden coast. This 4 acre property is perfect for luxury residential development. At the top, there are four platforms of different sizes, each of them with panoramic ocean views!!! From several places you can see the entire line of the surrounding coast line that stretches as far as the eye can see. And, where you don't see ocean, you've got great valley views. Its access is through a private easement street with extension of 900 meters that connects the property with the main road. Access to public services water and electricity are available. This is a great opportunity for investors and developers. For more information contact us today!
