Property Description

Heritage site in Nosara for sale! This house is formerly known as Casa de Piedra and was one of the original 'Playas de Nosara' buildings. Recently the main structure was involved in a big fire. This property is offered as is for you to decide your preferred use. Restoring the building to its former and updated glory or a fresh new start at this fantastic location. The lot is divided in two tiers for potential expansion or a guest house or second home if desired. The second story of the original structure features both a canopy view as well as a couple of ocean view peaks. The central location in the Northern Part of Pelada makes this an excellent opportunity for nature and beach lovers alike. It's a short walk to the pretty beaches of Northern Pelada, The river mouth (also known as the Boca), and Lagarta Lodge. Reach out now for more information or a showing of the property!
