Property Description

Casa Serena truly has the best location in Samara: amazing ocean views, secluded, yet a five minute walk to the beach and the center of town with all the restaurants, shops, and supermarkets. The home was designed to allow for the best possible ventilation and constructed using premium quality materials and craftsmanship with great attention to detail. It features high ceilings and large windows with screened sliding doors of European quality that allows for seamless indoor and outdoor flow and lets in loads of light. In addition, this home offers a unique and versatile living experience, complete with an extra fully equipped studio, which also benefits from the amazing ocean view and is situated above the double car garage. In the main home, a large upper level primary bedroom opens to its own balcony to enjoy the fantastic ocean view and is equipped with a custom made walk-in closet in addition to full floor-to-ceiling closets.
