Property Description

Fantastic property with Amazing LOCATIOOOOON! The location between Uvita and Dominical in Puerto cito is already a big plus, and the features of the lot make it even more appealing. The three terrace pads offer versatility for building and enjoying ocean views, especially from an upper-level structure. The easy 2WD access is a convenience that many buyers value, and the proximity to Escaleras adds to the property's allure and potential valuation. The fact that there's a road providing access to a rocky beach within a 10-minute walk is a significant bonus for those who love coastal living. Given these advantages, it's no wonder this property could be an excellent choice for building a rental house. The combination of accessibility, views, and nearby amenities creates a desirable package for potential renters or even for your own enjoyment.
