Property Description

Casa Akasha is a hidden gem. Tucked away in the jungle, it offers privacy and tranquility, whilst being only a short drive down to the white sand beaches of Playa Carmen and Santa Teresa. The property has three separate houses. Entering the property via the river-stone driveway, you are immediately met with the beautifully-designed facade of the three-bedroom main house. The large teak front door is set within a front of glass panels that stretch from floor to ceiling, allowing visitors to get a glimpse of the beautiful views from within. The open-plan kitchen and living area is spacious and bright, benefiting from the natural light that enters the tall glass windows. The fully equipped kitchen, including an island/breakfast bar, is perfect for cooking family dinners. Accordion glass doors lead out to a large teak deck, and infinity salt-water pool, which are surrounded by lush tropical garden.
