Property Description

Discover a stunning secluded property in La Tigra, just 30 minutes south of La Fortuna. Spanning 13,000 m² (1.3 hectares or 3 acres), this natural paradise features five turquoise swimming holes, spring-fed rivers, and a pond perfect for tilapia. The land is lush with fruit trees like lime, orange, coconut, and mangosteen, and attracts vibrant wildlife, including parrots and toucans. With water and electricity in place, it's ready for your retreat or dream home. Accessible via a short unpaved road (soon to be paved), this property offers tranquility near Costa Rica's largest nature reserve and the tourist hotspots of La Fortuna.
