Property Description

It is called 'Casa Vista Wow!' - The Best Ocean Views – 5.5 Acres – Over 14 Structures. Words, photos and even videos cannot convey the impression one feels when arriving at this impressive property. This picturesque site was chosen by a couple familiar with the tropics and who knew exactly what they wanted: Something very special. They had the advantage of being here decades before the boom in popularity that brought many developers and residents to Costa Rica. They looked throughout Costa Rica and saw many places on the undeveloped coast line. When they came across this spot, with nothing else nearby for a long distance, they knew they had found the setting they were looking for. The perch, the view, the large usable property, surrounded by wildlife and natural flora, and still near enough to the basic necessities. The property is almost 5 ½ acres and comes with over 14 structures and private mini-environments.
