Property Description

Located just above Matapalo beach(10km north of Dominical), this property has it all; ocean views, mountain views, a cascading river, thick jungle, fruit trees, and utilities(water & electric) on site. The access from the coastal highway is a short 4 minute drive up a well maintained dirt road. When you arrive at the property's entrance there is a long flat driveway through a tunnel of trees that leaves you on the main building site. From the large, flat building site you have elevated ocean views straight ahead, and mountain views to both the left and right. From the building site you have the relaxing sound of the river cascading through the jungle below. The river on the property is the property's borderline. The river runs the entire north side of the property, and then cuts south and forms the boarder on the lower limits of the lot. Therefore you have the river acting as a boarder on two the the four side of the lot.
